

Joseph Mire

jmmire@crimson.ua.edu | (985) 590-2712 | www.josephmire.com | www.linkedin.com/in/joseph-mire

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Science in Computer Engineering, May 2028

The University of Alabama, Tuscaloosa, AL

Minors: Computer Science, Mathematics

GPA: 4.0/4.0

Honors College / Alpha Lambda Delta Honors Society

National Merit Finalist

LICENSE / SKILLS

Part 107 Commercial Drone License | EMR Certificate

Networking: Proxmox Homelab | Electronic: FPV Drones, 3D Printers, Soldering, CAD

Programming: Python, Java, C++

LEADERSHIP / AWARDS

Co-Founder of Ripping Tide Drone Racing Team, Tuscaloosa, AL, September 2025 - Present

- President: September 2025 – July 2026 | Vice-President: August 2026 - Present
- Lead students to the national Collegiate Drone Racing Competition
- Teach students drone racing techniques, soldering, and firmware configuration

1st Place Award at AI Workshop and Hardware Hackathon, Potsdam, NY, July 2026

- Developed an open-source access control and logging system with three ESP32 microcontrollers
- Used RFID tags and hashes to award access

Altar Serving Captain, Most Holy Trinity Catholic Church, Covington, LA, August 2020 - June 2024

- Received St. Timothy Award- highest award given to high school students in the archdiocese
- Received Altar Server of the Year Award 2023
- Coordinated altar serving duties at each mass

WORK EXPERIENCE

REU Sensor Researcher, Clarkson University, Potsdam, NY, May 2026 - July 2026

- Developed a power efficient firmware for a custom PCB featuring an LMP91000 sensor
- Implemented a real-time clock and wake-on-motion functionality to the custom circuit board

UA Athletics Security Intern, Andy Frain Services, Tuscaloosa, AL, September 2025 - Present

- Manage the access control credential system for Alabama's Bryant Denny Stadium
- Set up metal detectors and bike racks in anticipation of game day

Drone Light Show Volunteer, Pixis Drones, Tuscaloosa, AL, October 2024

- Participated in calibrating, placing, and inserting batteries for 500 light-show drones
- Acted as the visual observer for the DJI filming drone

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Mass and Meal, St. Francis Parish, Tuscaloosa, AL, January 2025 - Present

- Prepare and serve food for a parish meal after Sunday-night Catholic Mass